

Transcription of the John Washington Auld Family Bible

The following is a precise transcription of the information recorded on the family pages of the Family Bible belonging to James Washington Auld (5 Feb 1833–20 Feb 1900), who spent his adult life farming east of Farmerville, Union Parish, Louisiana. Auld was the second son of Margaret Jane Ward (c1812–1880/1893) and Elijah Michael Auld (c1811–1877/1880), making him the grandson of Elisha Ward Sr. and Jane Washington Neeland.

James W. Auld first married Sarah Jane Stokes (7 Sep 1830–4 Jun 1862), daughter of John Stokes (2 Apr 1798–14 Feb 1838) and Mary Albritton (19 Sep 1804–15 Sep 1856). Their Bible contains several Stokes and Albritton entries. For this reason, the Bible was passed down to Sarah's youngest son, Elijah Hubbard Auld.

Mr. Roger Auld sent copies of the original Bible pages to Timothy D. Hudson in October 2003. He obtained copies from the Bible from his father's cousin, a Mr. Singley.

As with most Bibles of this period, each page had two columns for recording family information. This transcription retains all original punctuation. Many common names such as "Henry" and "Alice" were spelled incorrectly by the person who entered this information.

- John Stokes Departied this life February the 14 in the year 1838
- Mary Funder Burk Departied this life September the 15 1856
- Newton Stokes Departied this life Julye the 13 1840/1860

Note: The third digit of the year is difficult to decipher; clearly it was originally written as a "5," and it appears as if someone wrote "6" over this. On the other hand, it also looks as if it was a "4," making the year either 1840 or 1860.
